

PUB GAMES

If you are looking for an informal event that is great fun and promotes teamwork in a friendly and competitive situation - then our Pub Games will prove ideal.

Adventure Sports Pub Games are the perfect way to liven up your Christmas party or conference, and are particularly suited to after dinner events.

Games would normally take 15-20 minutes to complete, so a typical event would comprise of about six games. Team sizes can range between 5 - 12 members, and by scoring each game a competitive atmosphere is created.

GAME DESCRIPTIONS

Skittles: Traditional nine pin pub skittles. Fast and furious action, the team are trying to score as many strikes as possible in the available time.

Giant Jenga: A wooden tower that starts its life 3 ft tall. With precise teamwork the tower can reach Empire State proportions if time permits.

Labyrinth of Puzzles: A series of over sized, mind bending puzzles will confound and confuse even the most experienced puzzle anorak!

Putting Alley: A long alley with an obstacle or two, which will test the skills of all the Nick Faldo wannabees out there.

Space Hopper Quiz: The good old pub quiz, with a difference. Team members are required to ride a space hopper through a slalom course before the quizmaster can ask a question.

Giant Buzz Wire: Guide your wire loop around a fiendishly difficult zigzagging metal frame – if they touch the buzzer goes and you are out!

Splat the Rat: Wack the rat as it rushes out of the drainpipe – looks easy until you try.

Giant Shove Ha`Penny: Traditional Shove Ha`Penny played on a 7 ft x 4 ft table top board using Ha`Penny`s the size of frisbees.

William Tell: Cross Bows that fire sticky arrows at a Mordillo Castle scene, large targets on the scene are worth a low point score, a small target holds a high value.

Traditional Darts: Old fashioned Darts, one to catch out the regular visitors to the local amongst your colleagues.

Giant Connect Four: The classic vertical board game enlarged ten fold.
